

Technical Support Intern

The Darfur/Sudan Peace Network (DSPN) is a not-for-profit national coalition of organizations advocating for the Canadian government to play a greater role in ending the crisis in Darfur, Sudan.

Our operating model distributes responsibility and leadership among a dynamic and always evolving team. The success of the DSPN depends in large part on the hard work and enthusiasm of interns and coordinators who are often un-paid. New interns will have the opportunity to take on increasingly greater leadership and responsibility within the organization.

This position covers a variety of tasks such as providing general technical support, discussing and resolving technical challenges as they arise, recommending and/or making improvements to the DSPN's current technical systems, and being involved in the start-up of new media and multimedia teams.

The main responsibilities of this intern position will depend on the qualifications and experience of the interested candidate.

Application deadline: Position will be removed from the website as soon as it is filled

Start and end dates: Begins immediately; position length depends on the level of involvement chosen by the candidate

Hourly commitment: A minimum of 2 hours per week; ideally 4-5 hours per week

Location: The DSPN office in Montréal

Remuneration: Volunteer position (Please note this position can be treated as an internship for school credit if approved by the institution attended.)

Please e-mail an application package consisting of cover letter, resume with two or more references, and completed Volunteer Information Form to interns@sudan.peacenetWORK.ca, and we will assess your skills and arrange an interview. You can expect to receive a response within two weeks of submitting your application package.

If you are not available to volunteer at this time but are interested in joining the DSPN team at a later date, please feel free to submit an application package which we will look over and keep on file.
